SICKLES AND WALSH OUT?

Reported Withdrawal of Two of the Congressional Nominees.

FOR THE SAKE OF HARMONY

Cleveland Said to Have Made Terms by Which He Will Indorse Hill.

NATIONAL POLITICS INVOLVED.

The State Demecracy to Show that It is in Line with the Administration.

It was positively announced at noor to-day that Senator Hill's visit in order to restore harmony among the Democratic factions over Congressional nominations nad already borne good fruit. It has been decided that both Gen

Sickles and John J. Walsh shall retire from the field in the Tenth and Eighth Congressional Districts, respectively, thus putting an end to all contests in these districts.

- Senator Hill came here, it was stated, to conciliate everybody, and he has suc ceeded to a large extent.

The indications are that before the day over, all the knots will have been untled, and in every district Tammanyites regardless of factions, will have united spon single candidates.

Senate Mill set the lenders this morning and went over the same ground with them that he is known to have covered so often during the past few weeks. His was a difficult one, but in the end he won. The Tammanyites with whom he in the main correct. Then a partial agreement was reached.

Congress, should be withdrawn in favor of John De Witt Warner, or some other well-known Cleveland Democrat. favorable to the Grace Democracy. Gen. Sickles, it was asserted, would certainly resign if called upon.

Another withdrawal decided upon was that of Lawyer Walsh, in the Eighth Congressional District, in favor of Edward J. Dunphy. It was admitted that inducing Walsh to withdraw. Dunphy, an opposition ticket, anyhow, in case Tammany did not openly indorse him. Senator Charles J. Fanikner, Chairman Senator Charles J. Fanikner, Chairman of the Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee, who has come to New York to work for harming between Tammang and the Stitt Democracy with regard to Congressional candidates, called on Senator Hill at the Park Avenue Hotel this morning. After a half hour's conference he returned to the Imperial Hotel, where he met Mayor Gliroy and Police Commissioner Martin.

Did Hill Give Him Points?

Benator Faulkner would not say what had sheen the subject of his interview with Benator Hill, but it is understood that the latter gave the West Virginia harmonizer pointers on how to proceed to get New York's rival factions in humor for agreeing to compromise.

Senator Faulkner is accompanied by Lawrence Gardner. Secretary of the Committee of which he is Chairman, and Bdwin Sefton, his private secretary. Shortly before 12 o'clock Mayor Giroy and Commissioner Martin left the Imperial Hotel. They refused to say what had been the result of the conference with the Senator from West Virginia.

Mr. Gardner, however, stated for Senator Faulkner that there would probably be a meeting late this afternoon, at which the Senator, Mayor Giroy. Commissioner Martin, ex-Mayor Giroy. Commissioner Martin, ex-Mayor Giroy. Commissioner Martin, ex-Mayor Grace and Francis M. Scott would be present. He would not say whether the Tammany representatives indicated whether they would make any concessions.

Mr. Grace and Mr. Scott called on Sen-any concessions.

Mr. Grace and Mr. Scott called on Senator Faulkner shortly before noon. Mr. Grace said he had not heard of the reported withdrawal of Sickles and Walsh, but was hopeful that an agreement would soon be reached.

Tammany Men Disappeared.

As Grant, Martin and Sheehan were As Grant, Martin and Sheehan were known to have been in consultation with Mr. Hill only a few minutes before, the supposition was that they had left headquarters through some rear door while Grace and Scott were entering by another.

while Grace and Scott were entering by another.

However, Mr. Grace seld that a compromise would undoubtedly be agreed upon after he had seen one or two men. The inference was plain that the parties to be seen were Sickles and Walsh. Senator David B. Hill's presence at Democratic State Headquarters to-day was the occasion of a great scurrying around among the headquarters staff, and many rumor were current concerning what was zoing to happen before the day was over.

Mr. Hill at once took hold of the Ampaign steering-sear, and assumed his accustomed reserve concerning his intentions.

COUNCIL OF OFFICERS.

Dr. MacArthur's Church.

The second day of the exercises on the programme of welcome to Gen. Booth began this morning with a council of staff and field officers at Dr. Mac-Arthur's Church, Fifty-seventh street, near Broadway.

There were present more than 1,000 officers from outside cities, some coming from the Pacific coast, Cincinnati, Milwaukee and in fact every city of any importance between the Atlantic and the Pacific oceans.

Gen. Booth drove up to the church about 10.30 o'clock, accompanied by his son, Commander Bailington Booth, and his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Bailington Booth.

The session was an executive one, and The session was an executive one, and comprised the reading of reports from commanders of various districts and an address by Gen. Booth, in which he dwelt upon the work that had been done by the Army and its phenomenal growth. "The floaters will have to keep shady this election, for the Grand Jury is hot after them."

The Grand Jury will probably not touch the police investigation to-day, although there were many rumors about the Court-House that Capt. Schmitt-berger's case would be looked into first. Assistant District-Attorney Wellman was early at his office, but he would have nothing to say about the investigation of the police by the Grand Jury, and he shut himself up with District-Attorney Fellows as soon as the latter arrived.

The indicted police officials and ex-sergeants have not yet been arraigned before Judge Cowing for pleading, and it is said that they will not be arraigned before Thursday or Friday.

At 1 o'clock the last of the police captains had been called before the Grand Jury and had testified. The Grand Jury then took up the consideration of cases of felony and misdemeanor, which had been handed in from the police courts, and did not resume the investigation of corruption in the Police Department.

It was rumored this afternoon that to-morrow every police captain in the city will be summoned to appear before the Grand Jury in regard to the lilegal registration cases.

At to-day's meeting of the Police Board, Supt. Byrnes will be further instructed regarding the work of the police at the polis on election day, and his actions in regard to preventing further illegal registration.

The Grand Jury adjourned for the day at 3.15 o'clock this afternoon, without handing in any indictments. The Police Department investigation will be taken up again to-morrow.

Justice Dixon's Ignorance of the Game Law Gets Him Into Trouble. PATERSON, N. J., Oct. 23.-This mornrants charging Justice Jonathan Dixon of the Supreme Court; Justice Jame Inglis, of the Passaic County Court o superintendent of the Erie Rairond Rogers Locomotive Works, and William Reuben Wells, superintendent of the Rogers Locomotive Works, and William De Graw, the Greenwood Lake hotel keeper, with violating the Fish and Game laws, wrote a personal letter to each of them, requesting them to appear before him, and notifying them to appear before him, and notifying them that the warrants had been issued at the instigation of Fish Warden Charles A. Schriner.

None of the accused parties has responded, Justice Dixon will be here Thursday to open court, and it is expected he will then give the matter his attention. The warrants have not been served, Justice Benior's letter making them unnecessary.

Justice Benior is quite overwhelmed with the novel position in which he is placed. When the Justice took his oath of office he never dreamed he would be called upon to keeue warrants against such distinguished lawbreakers. The affair is the talk of the city.

The defendants are accused of shooting ducks at Greenwood Lake from the bow of a steam-launch, which is a violation of the Fish and Game laws. The penalty is 120 for each duck shot. Of course, the hunters did not know they were breaking the law.

Schriner has the smile on his side now. Recently he was indicted for obtaining money unlawfully from the county in receiving 5,000 to aid in the publication of a centennial history of Paterson. The Finance Committee was also indicted for giving him the money. The Freeholders told Justice Dixon that they acted on the advice of counsel.
